

CZAR BETTER TODAY BUT HAS A CANCER

DEATH DOES NOT LOOSE ITS HOLD.

Russia's Ruler Is Beyond Hope—News Can Be Sent Across the Frontier With Great Difficulty—How the Reports in European Capitals Disagree.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 23.—The czar is improving. He passed a good night. It is impossible to send news except by letter across the frontier. A Vienna daily asserts that the czar's illness is the consequence of arsenical poisoning.

THE CZAR.

The Dying Ruler of Russia.

The Paris correspondent of the Daily News discredits the report that the czarowitz has renounced the succession.

"It is none the less true," it is added, "that the czar's brothers, who now have been summoned to Livadia, came to France so as to be out of the way during any possible crisis about the order in which the throne should be transmitted."

From St. Petersburg the News has the following:

"The latest advices from Livadia are that, despite the fact that he is out of bed, the czar's case is hopeless. The doctors have discovered that he has a cancer. In ten days he has lost thirty-two pounds. The excitement at Livadia and Moscow is indescribable."

A dispatch from Warsaw says it is believed in that city that the disease from which the czar is suffering originated in the railroad accident near Borki, in October, 1888, when the imperial train was wrecked while his majesty was returning from the Crimea to St. Petersburg, killing twenty-one people and wounding thirty-six others, among whom was the czarina. The czar suffered severe contusions on both sides of the body and these, it is conjectured, may have caused some internal injury, as he has never been quite well since.

It was reported at the time of this accident that it was due to defective rails, but the popular belief has been that the wreck was caused by nihilists.

WEEVIL IN THE WHEAT.

Startling Fear that Much of Chicago's Stock Is Affected.

CHICAGO, Oct. 23.—Is there a very considerable quantity of wheat stored in Chicago elevators full of weevils? This startling question is just now pestering big grain shippers in the local market and if the answer shall be discovered to be "yes," the great stock of grain in Chicago warehouses may be cut down to suit the taste of the despairing bulls. The matter came up in a most unexpected fashion Saturday, with the result that the owners of the steamer Charles A. Eddy and the grain firm of Norton & Worthington had a falling out which resulted in the Eddy putting off for Erie with a cargo of 50,000 bushels of wheat, said to be full of weevils. This cargo of wheat is owned by nobody, there are no bills of lading for it and the whole problem will have to be settled later on, when the returns come from the inspection to which the grain will be subjected in Erie. Meanwhile the grain trade is largely excited over one of the most remarkable cases that has arisen in the traffic for many years.

Conklin Gets His Clothes.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Oct. 23.—A special from Cassopolis, Mich., says a package shipped from Cincinnati Oct. 17 addressed to Mrs. A. B. Conklin, wife of Dr. Conklin, who was abducted Sept. 2, has been received here, containing the coat, vest and valise which the doctor had when abducted.

IS NOT A BROKER.

The Northern Pacific Receivers Must Sell Their Own Paper.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Oct. 23.—Judge Jenkins yesterday afternoon decided the Northern Pacific receivers could sell the issue of $5,000,000 of receivers' certificates which has been authorized to what, in their judgment, is to the best interests of the trust estate, and that he would not make his court a broker's office for the sale of the certificates. Early in the day Judge Jenkins decided that the bondholders of the Chicago & Northern Pacific should be made co-complainants with the Farmers' Loan and Trust company in the foreclosure suit against that road. Judge Jenkins took the question of making the second and third mortgage bondholders' committee parties to the Northern Pacific suit under advisement and said he would not render a decision for a fortnight.

Vice-President Stevenson in Missouri.

KEOKUK, Iowa, Oct. 23.—Vice-President Stevenson and party arrived here from St. Louis at an early hour yesterday morning and was greeted by a large crowd, to whom he made a short speech, devoted principally to a defense of the Wilson bill. At its conclusion he went through the crowd shaking hands. During the day the Vice-President spoke at Mexico, Macon, Kahoka, Memphis, Lancaster, Kirksville and Chillicothe, there being large crowds at all these places. An audience of 5,000 people awaited Vice-President Stevenson's special train at the station at Brookfield. In the evening 10,000 Missourians welcomed the Vice-Presidential train at St. Joseph. A procession 3,000 strong escorted the visitors to the Crawford opera house, where the speaking took place.

Railroads Make Answer.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Oct. 23.—All the roads leading from Chicago and Cincinnati to the south, against whom a suit is pending in the United States Circuit court at this place, brought by the interstate commerce commission to compel these roads to conform to maximum freight charges fixed by that commission, have completed filing their answers. In brief, they allege that the interstate commerce commission has no legal authority to fix a maximum rate for them; also that the claim of the commission that western rates should be as low as eastern rates is not valid, inasmuch as the low eastern rates are made compulsory by competition with ocean coasting vessels.

Smallpox Appears Among Prisoners.

DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 23.—There was commotion at the Detroit house of correction yesterday when Health Officer Shulte diagnosed the sickness of an inmate as smallpox. Capt. Nicholson at once ordered a general vaccination and had the man removed to the city pest-house, where there are at present thirty-four smallpox patients. The prisoners soon learned that they had been exposed to contagion and were almost thrown into a panic through fear.

Will Hold Him for Extradition.

FREDERICKSBURG, Va., Oct. 23.—Commonwealth's Attorney White has telegraphed to the Cincinnati authorities to hold Morganfield, the Aquia Creek train robber suspect, until extradition papers now preparing can be forwarded.

Banquet to Thomas B. Reed.

CHICAGO, Oct. 23.—Tom Reed of Maine and about 725 other republicans dined at the Auditorium last night, the guests of the Hamilton club. There were speeches by Reed, by President Dixon, and A. B. Cummins of Iowa, Clark E. Carr, and Rev. Conrad Haney.

Gov. Lewelling Ailing.

WICHITA, Kan., Oct. 23.—Gov. Lewelling is confined in his bed and has been compelled to cancel some of his campaign appointments. His condition is not thought to be serious and he expects to be up again in a couple of days.

Reed Will Not Speak in Kansas.

TOPEKA, Kan., Oct. 23.—A telegram from ex-Speaker Thomas B. Reed received here informs the republican committee that he will not be able to speak in Kansas this campaign. He had been booked for speeches at half a dozen points in the state.

John R. Gentry and Robert J.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 23.—The secretary of the bureau of animal industry has been advised that a shipment of several carloads of Mexican cattle is on its way to this market. Another shipment is en route to Chicago.

MOB WANTS BLOOD BUT ACCEPTS TALK

GENEVA, ILL., LYNCHERS PERSUADED TO GO AWAY.

Were Determined to Break Down the Jail Door and Hang Charles Stebbins For an Outrage on a Twelve-Year Old Girl—General Northwestern News.

GENEVA, Ill., Oct. 23.—A large crowd assembled today to lynch Charles Stebbins. The sheriff induced the crowd to disperse, but further trouble is feared. A heavily armed guard has been patrolling the jail yard since 6 o'clock last evening. Stebbins' offense is of a nature that before this and in other parts of this nation has caused mobs to assemble with a rope. Stebbins' crime is aggravated by the fact that he had not one but two victims, and that they are mere infants, little girls aged respectively 3 and 4 years. The little daughter of John Hadsall, a prominent man here, was saved from her assailant just in time, and the mother of the other child, armed with a revolver, vigorously effected a rescue. The situation here is alarming and unless a vigorous stand is taken by the authorities a lynching will become part of the history of this city.

SIX MEN BURIED IN THE RUINS.

Caught While Tearing Down a Disused Structure in St. Paul.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Oct. 23.—Six men were buried under the ruins of an old building on Bridge Square at 3:20 o'clock yesterday afternoon. All are badly injured. Two may die. On the steep bluff close by the Wabasha street bridge and nearly 100 feet above the railroad tracks the McClund building had stood for so many years few remember when it was not there. It was finally condemned a few years ago and has since been unused. Recently the Pabst Brewing company secured the location for a warehouse and concert garden. For several days the old building has been in course of destruction. The building was so old that the mortar had crumbled, and it was a wonder the building had not sooner fallen. Workmen had removed the roof and were loosening the boards on the second floor, when the floor gave way, carrying them to the farthest corner of the cellar.

Five men were at once taken out and brought up through the cellar of an adjoining building and sent to the hospital. Schmidt was buried under a mass of brick, mortar, and boards six or eight feet deep, and could not be reached until nearly two hours of hard work, but he was still alive when found.

The injured:

BRODHAG, EUGENE, aged 41; severe scalp wounds.

MILZACK, ANDREW, aged 47; scalp wound, severely contused left shoulder and hips.

MULLEN, FRANK, aged 34; head crushed; internal injuries; may die.

SCHIEP, STEPHEN, aged 30; head and body bruised.

SCHMIDT, JACOB, aged 43; scalp wounds and badly contused back.

WHALES, WILLIAM, aged 62; right arm crushed at shoulder and scalp wounds; may die.

Had the outer wall gone out with the men none could possibly have lived.

BISSELL THINKS IT A LOTTERY.

Refuses to Cash Orders for the Equitable Savings Investment Company.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 23.—Postmaster General Bissell has issued orders to Postmaster Carlisle to refuse to cash money orders and cease to deliver registered letters to the Equitable Savings Investment company. Mr. Bissell said he had received information that J. P. Lowrey, president; S. Simon, vice-president, and M. C. Howard, secretary and treasurer, were conducting a lottery or similar enterprise. The Equitable company is an insurance concern with a coupon feature and reserve and redemption funds.

Quarreled With His Young Wife.

MORRISON, Ill., Oct. 23.—Carl Buittel, 60 years of age, attempted to commit suicide yesterday. He had been quarreling with his young wife at breakfast, and in a fit of rage committed the deed. He is not expected to live, as the ball passed clear through his body.

Indicted for Murder of Ira Hurd.

BENTON HARBOR, Mich., Oct. 23.—Orrin Ludlow of this city and Mrs. Ira Hurd, at Allegan, were yesterday bound over for the murder of Mrs. Hurd's husband in Allegan, Sept. 22, when, it is said, Mrs. Hurd shot him, supposing him to be a burglar breaking into the house.

Supposed Cause a Lovers' Quarrel.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Oct. 23.—Dr. Charles E. Langdon, a young physician of New Berlin, this county, committed suicide in his office there late last night. A lovers' quarrel is supposed to have been the cause.

Santa Fe Fast Express Derailed.

CHILlicothe, Ill., Oct. 23.—The fast New York express on the Santa Fe, due here at 9 o'clock in the morning, collided with a gravel train the yards yesterday and was derailed. The engineers and firemen jumped and escaped injury, except Engineer Foulkner of the express, who was badly scalded. It is thought he will recover.

JAPAN WILL FIGHT TO THE BITTER END

NO FOREIGN INTERFERENCE SAYS THE DIET.

Imperial Council Wants Everybody To Keep Hands Off—Argentine Republic Refuses To Sell Its Fleet of War Ships—Movements of the Mikado's Navy.

PROSHIMA, Oct. 23.—The Japanese Diet has determined to continue the war and punish China. It resents the interference of other powers.

BUENOS AIRES, Oct. 23.—The cabinet council last night rejected Japan's offer to buy the Argentine fleet of war ships.

LONDON, Oct. 23.—A dispatch to the Times from Tientsin says a report is current that seventeen Japanese warships, under Admiral Ito, have assembled at Ping Yang Inlet. Thornton Haven, it is said, has never been occupied by the Japanese. The Chinese fleet is reported to be at Wei Hai Wei.

Roumania in the Triple Alliance.

PARIS, Oct. 23.—The Figaro makes the assertion that Roumania has joined the triple alliance, composed of Austria, Italy and Germany, and declares the visit of the king of Servia to Vienna and Berlin was in contemplation of a still further change in the dreibund.

King Dissolves Socialist Societies.

ROME, Oct. 23.—All the socialist workmen's societies throughout the kingdom were dissolved yesterday by government decree. The offices and domiciles of the members were searched and some important documents seized. Several protests were made against the action of the government, but there was no disorder.

Pinaro's Friends Are Shot Down.

CARACAS, Oct. 23.—It is reported that the cabinet, feeling that it is impossible to sustain President Crespo, will resign. Five of a band organized to kidnap President Crespo were killed in a riot at Maracibo, and seven captured. Warrants have been issued for the arrest of seven high military officials.

German Social Democrats in a Wrangle.

BERLIN, Oct. 23.—The German Social Democrat congress at Frankfurt-on-the-Main wrangled all yesterday on a proposition to reduce the salaries of officers and editors of party organs. The proposition was defeated.

Forty Miners' Bodies Found.

VIENNA, Oct. 23.—Forty bodies have been recovered from the colliery at Anina, Hungary, where the explosion of fire damp occurred Saturday. Thirty persons were injured.

Mercier Nearing the End.

MONTREAL, Quebec, Oct. 23.—Ex-Premier Mercer of Quebec is rapidly nearing the end.

WORK OF A CYCLONE.

Buildings at Gauda Springs, Winfield, and Salt City Wrecked.

ARKANSAS CITY, Kan., Oct. 23.—Reports just coming in tell of the ravages of a tornado of no small proportions which struck Gauda Springs, eighteen miles west of the Arkansas river, late Saturday evening. Two people are known to have been injured. The property loss will aggregate nearly $100,000. The tornado struck Gauda Springs from the southwest and continuing in a northeasterly direction till it reached Winfield before spending its force. In its course it laid low farmhouses, outbuildings, crops, and trees. The aggregate money loss at Gauda Springs is $20,000. At Winfield, where the storm broke up, six small houses were blown down and several business houses were unroofed.

McKinley in West Virginia.

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Oct. 23.—Gov. McKinley made several short speeches at various points during his trip through the state yesterday. Several thousand people were in the audience here that listened to the governor in the afternoon. No special reference was made to Congressman Wilson, contrary to general expectation, although the tariff law of which he is the author was vigorously assailed.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Oct. 23.—Gov.

McKinley and party were met at the depot here by a band and the Huling club and escorted to his hotel amid great enthusiasm. The evening meeting was held in the large opera house, which was packed with 3,000 enthusiasts.

Catholic Knights Meet.

OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 23.—The state council of the Catholic Knights of America held its biennial convention in this city yesterday, and, after the transaction of routine business, proceeded to the election of officers. Rev. Father Ruecing, West Point, was elected president. The report of the secretary showed that the order was in good financial condition, and that the greatest harmony prevailed among the different lodges.

Iron Trades to Federate.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 23.—A federation of the various iron trades of the United States and Canada will probably result from a secret conference in progress here. The movement has been originated by the Brotherhood of Boiler Makers and Iron Shipbuilders, the International Association of Machinists and the International Brotherhood of Blacksmiths. The scheme is regarded as feasible unless it is found to conflict with other labor federations.

FOUR CHILDREN ARE CREMATED;

Grandchildren of Bishop Taylor, the African Missionary Parish.

NYACK, N. Y., Oct. 23.—Four grand children of Rev. W. Taylor, Methodist missionary bishop of Africa, perished in the elegant house of their father, Rev. Ross Taylor, in South Nyack early yesterday. In addition one man was so badly burned that he can scarcely recover and two others were seriously injured. It was a little after 4 o'clock when Mrs. Taylor was awakened by the smell of smoke. She aroused her husband. They found the halls filled with smoke, the fire having evidently obtained great headway. From the first it was plain the house was doomed, while the condition of the inmates was almost beyond hope. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor succeeded in groping their way through suffocating smoke to the open air without having been able to extend a helping hand to their six children or others of the household. People on the streets had seen the fire, and as Mr. and Mrs. Taylor emerged the fire department arrived. The energies of all were directed toward the rescue of those who still remained in the doomed structure. The two eldest of the Taylor children, Stewart and William, were aroused in time, and jumping from the window of their bed chamber were caught without being seriously injured. Four others of the children perished. Their names were:

HARRIET, aged eleven years.

ADA, aged nine.

ARTHUR, aged seven.

SCHULTZ, aged five.

Their bodies were recovered three hours later and removed to an undertaking establishment. Besides the Taylor family there were in the house Michael Mulladey, a laborer, and two house decorators named Edward Linta and William Ruth. All three had been sleeping in the third story. When aroused escape by the stairway was cut off, and they jumped for their lives. Mulladey was so badly hurt that he can scarcely recover. Ruth and Linta sustained serious injuries, but they will probably recover.

The house which was burned had only recently been built, and the interior decorations were still incomplete.

PLANNED AWFUL REVENGE.

Tried to Blow Up a Shanty Containing 100 Italians with Dynamite.

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—A desperate attempt was made last night to blow up a shanty about a mile from the village of New Rochelle and near Glen Island. Had the plot succeeded it is probable that about one hundred Italians, who were in the place, would have been killed and great damage would have resulted to adjoining property. The Italians and the Irishmen employed by laborers on the new sewer near Glen Island have had frequent encounters owing to race prejudice. Patrick Riley, 24 years old, swore that he would be revenged for some wrong the Italians did him. On Saturday night Riley got the key to the toolbox and after all the other workmen had gone home he went to the box and took out nine dynamite cartridges, the dynamite battery and all the wires used in blasting. Riley, who is an expert dynamiter, put the cartridges under different parts of the shanty, ran the wire along the ground to the battery and was about to explode the cartridges when he was discovered by a night watchman.

When the Italians in the house learned that Riley had attempted to blow them up it was with difficulty that they were restrained from killing him. He was to-day held without bail.

Tyler Gets Another Bicycle Record.

WALTHAM, Mass., Oct. 23.—The one mile competitive record was broken by Harry Tyler in the Class B invitation race yesterday. Tyler won by a short head from Eddie McDuffe in 2:05 1-5. The intermediate times were: Quarter, 34 1-5; third, 43 4-5; half, 1:03; two-thirds, 1:23 3-4; three-quarters, 1:33 3-5; mile, 2:05 1-5.

Presidents and Managers Meet.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Oct. 23.—An important meeting of the presidents and general managers of all the railroad lines in the Central Traffic association between Chicago and Buffalo will be held in this city, commencing this morning. Important matters are to receive attention.

Refuse Eight Per Cent Increase.

NORTH ADAMS, Mass., Oct. 23.—Employees of Linwood mills in Briggsville refused the company's offer of 8 per cent increase of wages. Notices have been issued the strikers to vacate the company's tenements.

Yale to Play Princeton.

PRINCETON, N. J., Oct. 23.—Yale and Princeton will play football in New York or Brooklyn, Saturday, Dec. 1. The long wrangle over the matter was finally settled by the interference of alumni.

Gives In To Strikers.

NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 23.—George B. Hyde gave in to the striking hat-makers yesterday and about 100 old hands returned to work. The strikers expect the other manufacturers will follow Hyde.

Breckinridge Makes Speech.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 23.—At Winchester yesterday Col. W. C. P. Breckinridge spoke to several thousand people. The colonel spoke in favor of the democratic nominees for district and county offices.

KOETTING IS GIVEN A CHANCE TO ESCAPE

NEW TRIAL FOR THE CROOKED CASHIER.

Supreme Court Holds That Judge Clementson, of the Milwaukee Municipal Court Did Not Have Jurisdiction Over the Case—Re-Conviction Is Believed to Be Certain.

MADISON, Oct. 23.—Cashier Koetting of the South Side Savings bank, Milwaukee, gets a new trial. This was the ruling of the supreme court today. The point in question was whether the Milwaukee municipal court and Judge Clementson had jurisdiction over the case. The man who so shamelessly robbed the working people of Milwaukee will not escape, however. State Attorney Hammel will push the case with all possible haste, and from evidence already brought out it is thought that there will be little trouble to reconvict Koetting.

STOCK EXCHANGE LOSSES.

Hundreds of Women and Unemployed Men Invested in the Pittsburg Pools.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Oct. 23.—The Consolidated Stock and Produce company, another discretionary pool, did not open its doors yesterday morning. Hundreds of investors, who went to the office to withdraw their deposits were confronted with a notice that the firm had suspended temporarily. Other pools are expected to suspend at any moment and excitement among the investors is high. By the books of the Delaneys, who have been arrested, it is shown that over one half of the investors were women, most of them domestics and washerwomen, who fancied they had found an easy road to wealth and who placed all their little savings in these concerns. A warrant has been issued for Washington Force, manager of the Consolidated exchange. United States District Attorney Hall says that the government might take a hand in the matter. If it did the charge would be that of using the mails for fraudulent purposes.

INDIAN TERRITORY TROUBLE.

Urgent Action Needed to Drive Out Marauding Bands of Outlaws.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—The Indian office has received advices from the Indian Territory giving briefly an account of the lawless condition of affairs in that section and asking that some action be taken to restore order and protect citizens in their rights. It has been suggested that in the present emergency the territory could be placed under martial law and troops be directed to clear the territory of the outlaws which now infest it. This would be an extreme measure and would not likely be resorted to unless all other methods fail.

Plans to Prevent Robberies.

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—The epidemic of train robbing that lately seems to have spread all over the land has aroused the officials of the various express companies to the necessity of united action in order to protect their interests. A meeting of the presidents of the express companies was held yesterday afternoon. It is understood measures were taken to urge the passage of the bill now pending before congress relating to train robberies. It designates, among other things, the degree of punishment that shall be inflicted upon persons robbing or otherwise "holding up" inter-state trains.

Debs Does Not Expect More Strikes.

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—Eugene V. Debs, president of the American Railway Union, is here organizing branches of the union. He predicts that this country has seen its biggest railway strike. There will never be one like it again. At a convention of 420 delegates from the various branches of the American Railway Union recently the ballot was settled on as being more effective than strikes. The program endorsing government ownership of railroads, telegraphs and mines was agreed on and the people's party was indorsed.

Ex-President Harrison's Engagements.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 23.—Ex-President Harrison leaves for New York to-day on business, but it is unlikely he will make a short campaign there similar to the recent trips over Indiana. He will return to Indiana Nov. 2 and close his campaign Nov. 3 with a speech at Anderson, the home of Candidate Charles L. Henry.

Finds His House Was Not Fireproof.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Oct. 23.—The residence of Casimer Werk in Westwood, seven miles from this city, was burned yesterday morning. Mr. Werk, deeming the house fireproof, shut the room up and waited for the fire to burn out, refusing to admit the firemen. Instead, the whole house was soon destroyed and nothing saved.

Casket Filled with Earth.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Oct. 23.—Considerable excitement has been caused here to-day by the discovery of an aggravated case of ghoulishness. Three weeks ago Thomas Tinsley, a prominent contractor, died of appendicitis and was temporarily interred in Ashland cemetery. To-day when friends made arrangements to move the remains the body was found missing and the casket filled with earth. There is no clue to the solution of the affair.

WORK AT THE POLLS AND EARLIER TOO

COUNTY REPUBLICANS MUST BE WELL PREPARED.

There is Plenty of Chance for Honest Effort—Miles Rice Lost $2,000 Through Spontaneous Combustion Koshkonong Landlord Arrested For Selling Liquor—County News.

MILTON, October 23.—Republicans who are interested in giving Major Upham, the state, congressional, legislative and county ticket a handsome majority in the town of Milton, have something to do as individuals in addition to casting their ballot. It is all important that the full vote of the party be polled. This cannot be secured unless all republicans assist in bringing about the result by personal effort. The county committeeman, club committees and club officials will do all that they can, but your help is indispensable in securing the best results. Let every republican reader of this item use his influence in converting democrats, populists and prohibitionists from the error of their ways, and especially that he make it his business to see on election day that his republican neighbors cast their ballots. With a united effort on the part of the republicans of Milton the majority this fall will be the largest in the history of the town. The Milton Republican club will meet at college chapel on Tuesday, October 30, at 7:30 p. m. All members are requested to be present.

Charged With Running a Blind Pig.

Proprietor Blucanon, of the hotel at Taylor's Point, Lake Koshkonong, was arrested by Officer Anderson, on Thursday on complaint of the board of supervisors, for violation of the license law. He was brought before Justice Clarke, pleaded not guilty and took an adjournment to November 1. P. Traynor giving bail for his appearance. Major Allen, clerk in the adjutant general's office at Madison, was the guest of Postmaster Morris Thursday evening. A poetical "ad." drew out a good crowd for the Iduna "rainbow tea" Thursday evening in the Davis room. The cuisine was excellent, the surroundings elegant, the waiters charming and the event enjoyable as are all entertainments managed by the fair Idunas. The Philomathean Society and Iduna Lyceum held a joint session at College chapel Saturday evening. A very pleasant birthday party assembled at the residence of R. Richardson Saturday evening to do honor to the eighteenth birthday of Channing Richardson. Rev. W. H. Summers loaded his goods and horse Tuesday and accompanied them east. Mrs. Summers follows in a day or two.

Spontaneous Combustion Fired a Barn.

Professor King, of Madison, was here Saturday, and went out to Miles Rice's farm. He gives it as his opinion that the fire was caused by spontaneous combustion of hay in the barn. He took a photograph of the ruins. Rev. G. M. Cottrell occupied the pulpit at the Seventh-Day Baptist church Saturday morning. He is the secretary and general agent for the Tract Board of the denomination. Oscar Crumb is putting in the foundation for his new house on Madison avenue.

Seven Cars of Grain Shipped.

The total shipment of grain last week only footed up seven car loads. Fetherston shipped three cars of barley, and two of oats and Osborn two cars of oats. Market shows no improvement from last week. Dawson & Co. of Janesville, shipped a car of live hogs from this station last week. Doctors J. H. Burdick and A. S. Maxson removed a cancerous growth from the head of Erastus Palmeter Friday. The operation was fairly successful and the patient is doing well. He had a similar growth removed from his face some years ago. Stephen Summers, principal of the Juda school, spent Saturday and Sunday in town. Mrs. Sexton and son of Darien, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Clem W. Crumb.

A. P. A. TROUBLE AT THE JUNCTION
Some One Tears Down Bills as Fast as They are Put Up.

MILTON JUNCTION, Oct. 23.—There is a little excitement in town, caused by some one tearing down the notices of the A. P. A. lectures as fast as the committee puts them up. This is a free country, but if that old war horse Tanner catches the person who does this, there will be loud talking done anyway, if nothing more. Marion Gray, who has been living on Clarissa Vincent's place on the river road, has moved into F. L. Burdick's house in town. Mrs. E. D. Coon, who has been quite sick for a week, is around the house. The event of the week will be the wedding Wednesday, at 8 o'clock, of Miss Dora Thorpe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Thorpe, and Edward Butts, a prominent young business man of Delevan. Mr. and Mrs. George Clarke, of Beloit, visited their uncle, Charles Clarke, Sunday night. Two more weddings are expected soon. The "Russian T." at H. E. Miner's Saturday, was attended by a large crowd, nearly one hundred taking tea. The receipts were $9.25, which is to be used for a curtain for the rostrum in the church. Mrs. Jones of Clinton, has been staying a few days with her brother, Will Gates. Mr. Doran is having his house painted. Carpenters are at work on a house for G. W. Coon. Bert Button's new house will be finished Wednesday. It shows up well since the leaves have fallen, and is a beauty. Ray Coon was home from Albion, over Sunday. Mrs. Elsworth has been sick with stomach trouble.

Mrs. Stephens, wife of the new M. E. minister, was quite sick last week with heart trouble. Mrs. Luana Rose is much worse. It was thought Sunday afternoon that she was dying. It is hoped by her many friends that she will rally again. A goodly number of Junctionites attended the organization of an Eastern Star Lodge at Edgerton Friday night. Among the number were Mr. and Mrs. John Owen, Irving Hinckley, Mr. and Mrs. Lex James, Meedames C. O. Button, Hinckley, Cookley, Hazzard and others. The Adverts have been holding special meetings for two or three days. Elder Oleson, president of the conference has been present; also quite a number of visitors from out of town. James Clancy of Madison, spoke to a small sized audience of democrats and others, one evening this week. Mark Tift was arrested for drunkenness and abusive language and taken before Justice Bullis, but he swore the case away to Esq. West's court, who promptly sent him to jail to sober up. William Morgan is entertaining a gentleman friend from out of town. Monday the insurance company represented by G. W. Coon had an interest in the old county poor house fire. Mr. Coon has been detained at home the past week with a severe case of quinsy. M. J. Clark entertained a number of gentlemen from Chicago last week who were on a hunting trip to Lake Koshkonong. Rev. A. P. Benjamin of Oshkosh will tell why he is an A. P. A. man at the M. E. church Monday and Tuesday evenings October 22 and 23. Undertaker Coon attended the funeral of little Agnes Gray, daughter of Dexter Gray near Johnstown Saturday. Tuesday he will attend the funeral of Mrs. Adeline Dane of the town of Harmony, burial at Mount Zion cemetery. Miss Olive Hinckley expects soon to start for New Orleans, La., to spend the winter with relatives. This will make the third winter Miss Hinckley has spent in the south. Rev. G. M. Cottrell of Topeka, Kan., field secretary of the S. D. B's. is calling in town this week. Mrs. J. T. Polk of Greenwood, Ind., arrived in Milton Junction Tuesday for a visit with her sister, Mrs. E. D. Coon and brother, Rev. G. W. Burdick and other relatives.

SLIGHT THE LOCAL MECHANICS

Charge Janesville Men Make Against D. McKenzie, School House Contractor.

Janesville mechanics complain that they are not fairly treated by Duncan Mackenzie the mason contractor on the new high school building. They claim that men from Rockford are kept steadily at work by Mr. Mackenzie while the Janesville men are worked but a day or two a week. Mr. Mackenzie is a Rockford man, and the Bower City hands say that he brought most of his men with him. They protest that while they pay taxes they should be given work on the building that their money pays for.

Probably Mr. Mackenzie has the right to employ whom he chooses and the statements of the men may not be just right; there are two sides to every story. A contractor runs many chances when he takes a contract of the magnitude of the high school job, and cannot afford to hire men who don't earn their pay, but if the Janesville men are as competent as the Rockford men they insist that they should do Janesville work.

SHOT A DOG IN A CROWDED SALOON

Dr. Clara Normington Demonstrates That She Is Cool Headed.

Dr. Clara Normington showed that her nerves never fail her last night. She is the owner of a fine setter dog worth $250 and while she was walking down River street, Herman Kath's shepherd dog attacked the more blue blooded animal and bit him severely. Dr. Normington drew a revolver from the hand bag that she carried, followed the dog into the saloon and shot him. A man who was drinking a glass of beer heard the shot square behind him and nearly jumped through the ceiling while the two dozen other men in the place were all thoroughly scared. Mr. Kath retained F. M. Scanlan to look into the legal status of the affair. The dog crawled under the building, but was wounded very slightly. Kath swore out a warrant for Dr. Normington's arrest in the municipal court this morning, charging her with shooting inside the city limits. The warrant was given to Chief Acheson and is returnable tomorrow morning.

M. G. JEFFRIS SPEAKS IN EDGERTON
Large Crowd Cheered and Welcomed The County Candidate.

M. G. Jeffris spoke in Edgerton last night and was royally received. The audience was large and enthusiastic. Besides Mr. Jeffris, Hon. Fenner Kimball, O. D. Rowe, W. A. Jackson and W. H. Appleby were present and several brief addresses were made. Edgerton has been in the habit of giving democratic majorities, but it looks as if there would be a very decided change this year.

JANESVILLE CASES IN SUPREME COURT

WATER POWER DAMAGE SUITS PASSED UPON.

Rather Than Pay a Ten-Cent Judgment Rock County Parties Took an Appeal—Final Ruling on the Arquette Insurance Claim—Damages For a Boy's Drowning.

The state supreme court met this morning at ten to render decisions in the last assignment of cases argued before them. Among the cases decided were several which came up from the circuit court of Rock county and some are cases from Janesville itself. Chief among these are three cases brought by those who own land on the east side of the river upon the claim against those who own water power of the upper dam.

The plaintiffs in these cases are Ann Walsh, Abigail A. Irwin and Timothy O'Rourke and they have in each case made the Janesville Cotton Mills, Hamilton Richardson, V. P. Richardson, C. W. Hodson, M. H. Hodson, O. H. Fethers, M. G. Jeffris, Pliny Norcross, Mattie Shopbell, Charles Skelly, H. H. Blanchard as executor of the will of Ellis Shopbell deceased, Edwin F. Carpenter as executor of the will of Thomas Lappin deceased, Mary M. Crossett, Hanson Furniture company and Oliver C. Ford defendants. Each of the plaintiffs claim that the owners of the water power have by buying and using the Indian Ford dam as a reservoir for storing water during the summer kept the Rock river at an unusual and unnatural height, thus flowing their lands which are thus made unfit for agricultural purposes and further that in two cases it has damaged their dwellings by causing water to stand in the cellars. Ann Walsh claimed $500 damages. The claim of Abigail A. Irwin is for $2,000 and that of Timothy O'Rourke $800. But upon the decision of these cases will depend the action of other land owners, so the cases are of much more importance than the amount of the damages indicate.

Case Still to be Tried on Its Merits.

The water power owners are represented by H. P. Richardson and the opposing parties by Nolan & Cunningham. The case was begun in the circuit court at Janesville, and the defendants demurred to the complaints and Judge Bennett overruled the demurrer from which the present appeal was taken. The supreme court to-day sustained Judge Bennett.

This decision is only preliminary to the trial of the case upon its merits.

The case Mary Wille against Julius Bartz and David Green, in which Doe and Sutherland and T. S. Nolan represented the defendants, and Winans & Hyzer appeared for the plaintiff, well illustrate the fact that people will spend almost any amount of money when once in a law suit, rather than accept defeat. The controversy was over a gate valued at five dollars. The case was begun in the justice court for Rock county, where damages of ten cents and costs were given Mary Wille. From this judgment the defendants appealed to the supreme court, preferring to run chances of winning their ten cents and costs and giving up beaten in the lower court. They lost, after all, for the supreme court affirms the judgment.

Arquette Fire in the Supreme Court.

The case of W. A. Edwards et al., interpleaded against John Arquette et al., and the Agricultural Insurance Company, of Watertown, New York, garnishee, was also appealed from Rock county. Dunwiddie, Goldin & Wheeler appeared for Arquette and the insurance company, and M. P. Richardson, John Cunningham and Sutherland & Nolan for the opposite parties. Arquette's house was insured for $700, the policy being payable to Schaller & McKey. When the house burned, several outside creditors of Arquette garnishees the insurance company. Judge Bennett held that Schaller & McKey were entitled to the amount of their bill, $350, and that the remaining $350 was payable to W. A. Edwards and other creditors. This judgment is reversed by the supreme court and judgment according to the opinion directed.

Another case appealed from Rock county was that of Frederick Luebke, administrator of the estate of John Luebke against the Berlin Machine Works. The action was for the drowning of John Luebke, through the negligence of the defendant company. Winans & Hyzer appeared for the plaintiff, and secured a verdict of 1,800 from which the appeal was taken. The judgment is now reversed and a new trial ordered.

Quacks in New York.

Quack-doctors have a harder time in New York than in any other city of the United States. The man who tries to practice medicine there without a license is in constant danger of detection, arrest and punishment. The members of the county medical society and the officers of the department of health are always on the watch for irregular practitioners.

To Avoid Collisions.

Lieutenant F. Boyer of the French navy, to avoid collisions proposes to introduce at the top on all fast sailing steamers an electric light, which will cast a beam ahead to indicate the direction in which the vessel is steering. So long as the approaching ship was not in the actual pencil of light it would be unnecessary for her to alter her course.

OVERWORK KILLS.

How Few Persons Stop to Think Of It.

And How Few Who are Not Overworking in Some Way.

Does This Mean You, Reader? Are You
Not Doing More Than You Ought?

Oh, the millions of tired out, hard-working men and women! Our stores, shops, factories and homes, all have them. They are weakening their systems, ruining their nerves, and laying a foundation for early decay and death! That nervous, weak and tired feeling at night is a warning of what is coming.

If you feel this way, look out! You will break down just as surely as you don't do something to get strong. Read the terrible experience of D. D. Bulkley, Esq., one of the most popular men of Moretown, Vt.:

"Within the last year I have found myself in a fearfully debilitated and depressed condition from overwork. I was in such a terrible state I could not sleep nights, and was so weak and nervous that the least exertion would completely unnerve me.

"I also had trouble with my kidneys, they bothered me constantly. I became greatly discouraged and worried all the time.

MR. D. D. BULKLEY.

I consulted many physicians, but they did me no good. I also took all kinds of medicine, but without benefit.

"Finally I was induced to try Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, and I can truly say that in a short time it had done me great good, more than all the other medicines together. Its action on my system was wonderful. I can now sleep well, my nerves are strong, and I feel well.

"I owe my cure entirely to that most wonderful medicine, Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. I recommend every sick and suffering person to use it. I know it will cure them."

As a great physician once said, "If these poor sufferers would only be induced to take Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy they would soon be well and strong." Some people are hard to be convinced, and even the most unbelieving now realize that this wonderful medicine cures.

And it is because it cures that everybody uses it. Try it. It is purely vegetable and harmless, and its discoverer is that well-known and most successful specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases, Dr. Greene, of 35 West 14th Street, New York City. He can be consulted free, personally or by letter.

DEMOCRATS PUT OFF MR. CARD'S REPORT

SOME SAY IT IS AIMED AT JOHN HOGAN.

Investigation of the City Treasurer's Books Has Been Completed But No Quorum Could Be Secured in the Common Council Last Night—Conflicting Reports.

The report of the expert, J. C. Card in relation to the city finances, was not made last evening as expected. Mr. Card couldn't find enough aldermen to hear his statement. After waiting half an hour Mayor Thoroughgood called the council to order. The roll call showed only Aldermen Baines, Child, Heddles, Rich and Winslow present, and the council was declared adjourned for want of a quorum. A few moments later Aldermen Cunningham and Kothman appeared, and a moment after them came Alderman McLean.

Expert Card has completed his report which has been shown to the finance committee. Efforts will be made to postpone the report until after election, if possible, it is said. Meanwhile bills are being filed as offsets by some of the parties against whom shortages are charged, in hopes that the council will audit them before considering the report.

Democrats say that republicans want to use the report to injure Candidate Hogan. Just how much foundation there is to such a claim is yet to be developed. The investigation was ordered long before there was any idea of selecting candidates, and it was ordered for the sole purpose of ascertaining the condition of the city finances. If on the eve of an important election, it is found that some political candidate is implicated sufficiently to jeopardize his success, it is better that the public should know it beforehand.

Whatever the findings of the expert may be, the lesson will be a profitable one for the city. It will insure new methods in the transacting of city business, and the requirements of the city charter will be adhered to more closely.

Mayor Thoroughgood has called a special meeting of the common council for this evening, at which it is expected some action will be taken in relation to the Card report.

Earth's Greatest Sufferer.

The nihilist doomed in Siberian waste to live in his exile gloom may possibly think he is fated to taste the cup of bitterest doom, and the slave who toils for another's gain with liberty denied may think he suffers the greatest pain that the human soul has tried, and the innocent soul adjudged of crime and rushed to a felon's doom may think no soul that has lived in time has suffered a heavier gloom. But the grief of all of those men combined can never amount to the sum of the torment awful, condensed, refined, of the man of the musical chum.

Bee Poison for Rheumatism.

In Mercer county, Pennsylvania, some bright young farmers have gone into the business of extracting poison from the common honey bee. There are two ways in which this is done: In one operation the little insects are confined in bottles and enraged by being "poked" with a stick until they deposit the tiny drops of the venom; in the other the poison is simply squeezed into glass tubes. It is said to be an infallible remedy for rheumatism, dropsy, ague, etc.

FOR SALE.

A model farm of 800 acres, 60 miles west of Quincy, Ill., in the Great Blue Grass Region of Northern Missouri, lying three miles from the Hannibal & St. Joe and Santa Fe railways. On this farm are $11,000 in new buildings fine barns and sheds for stock, the house cost $5,000 four years ago. Missouri is one of the best farming states, and here the soil, timber, grasses, water, fruit, climate and natural advantages are not excelled anywhere in the union. Dr. St. John resides in northern Missouri; Dr. Loomis just traveled through it and says the country and crops are fine. Will sell for what land is worth and throw in the buildings, and take a small farm in Wisconsin as part pay. This is a bargain some man must have.

TAUGHT HIM THE MANLY ART.

How a Thin-Legged, Narrow-Chested Boy Surprised His Assailants.

A well-known Philadelphian, who in his youth was given a little to sport, has a particularly fine boy who is very spirited. At school he suffered very much up to a few months ago from bigger boys, who abused and "pounded" him. Enjoining the lad to the strictest secrecy, the father employed a retired pugilist, a little bit of a fellow, and had him give the boy lessons several times a week in boxing. At odd moments he practiced with the boy himself. Finally the lad, with that assurance and sense of prowess which comes under such circumstances, wanted to be loose, but the father held him back until he felt perfectly satisfied. Not long ago he told his son to go ahead. An opportunity soon presented itself, and it would be hard to describe the sensation that followed when the young whipper-snapper who had been taking thumps for a year or two sailed in and laid out completely two of the biggest bullies and braggarts in the school.

Where Royal Ashes Lie.

Henry VIII. is buried in accordance with the provisions of his will alongside Jane Seymour, his third wife and mother of Edward VI., in St. George's chapel in Windsor castle. In the same royal vault are interred Henry VI., Edward IV. and his queen, George III. and his queen, George IV., the Princess Charlotte, the duke of Kent, the duke of York, William IV. and his queen and other members of the royal family. It is an interesting place to visit, and the town of the castle near by is where James I. of Scotland was confined.

MCKINLEY IN THE SOUTH.

There's a world of significance in the cordial reception and hearty ovation that was accorded Major McKinley on his recent trip to New Orleans. No incident since the close of the civil war is fraught with such importance, or more lasting good. It means to the south an awakening and the dawn of prosperity, and to the north an opportunity for congratulation.

It means more than this to north and south, for it is but the entering wedge of a brighter and better era. That the interests of the north and south are identical in many respects, no intelligent man will question. Nature has richly endowed the land from center to circumference, distributing favors with an unstinted hand. The east and west, the north and the south, should contribute alike to national prosperity. Under the stimulus of wise legislation the state of Louisiana was placed in a position to build up an industry that meant for the state increased wealth. Capital was freely invested and plans matured for developing this industry. The government was bound by compact to protect for a term of years the capital and enterprise thus invested, but a democratic congress disregarding honor and honesty annulled the contract and left the state at the mercy of foreign competition.

That the intelligence of the state should rebel at this kind of treatment is not at all strange, and it is quite natural that Major McKinley, the champion of protection, should become the standard bearer. McKinley and the republican party are identical and republican principles in the south are fast being recognized. As a result the election in November will be a revelation.

CANADIAN PRODUCTS.

The effects of free trade are already felt by Rock County farmers and will be more apparent as the Canadian market develops.

The northern peninsula country has long been a profitable outlet for Southern Wisconsin products. Hay and oats by the train load have been shipped north finding a profitable home market.

The Wilson bill admits to competition Canadian produce and as a result contracts all through the north are being cancelled to make room for cheaper shipments from abroad. How any Missouri farmer can be a democrat under these conditions is a question not easily answered.

Ex-Speaker Reed put the principal question at issue in this campaign when he asked: "Do we want certainty or uncertainty from now until 1896?" If certainty that the business of the country will not be harassed by further tariff tinkering is wanted, the people will elect a republican majority in the next house. If more tariff tinkering and more "hard times," the democrats will be kept in control. It is a question easily decided, and politics need not necessarily affect the decision.

J. M. Clancy and Professor J. C. Zinck will visit Edgerton tonight. Mr. Clancy is assistant attorney general and one of the defendants in the roster case. He was a stockholder in the Madison Times and his story of how a journalistic white elephant may be supported at state expense should interest Edgerton people greatly.

Funny that democrats should object to coupons. Ever since democracy came into power coupons have been in demand, and the most common have been coupons good for a bowl of soup at a free trade soup house.

North Carolina has produced a financier who should be nominated for president by the populists. He says that every township should print its own money and that the supply should always equal the demand.

Rock county farmers who voted for "a change" are doubtless happy over the fact that Canadian hay and feed will soon monopolize the northern Wisconsin market as well as shutting off shipments to the east.

Mrs. Lease must be in training to become a Tammany "pantata" after Kansas gets too hot to hold her.

TEACHERS TALK OF NOTE-READING

Music Classes in the School Discussed by Local Educators.

At the teachers' meeting in the Lincoln building yesterday, H. C. Buell opened the discussion on the subject of Music, with a short talk relative to what should be done with the pupils who does not want to sing. This was followed by an able paper on the "Importance of the Scale," by Miss Sarah Hickey. The writer emphasized the fact that the scale is the basis of all music, and hence the most thorough drill is necessary before proceeding with note singing.

Miss Murray read a paper on "Music in the Primary Department." The argument was that children naturally love to sing and the mechanical drill necessary to learning to sing by note, should be supplemented by the use of pleasing melodies sung by note.

Miss Spears gave a short talk on the Mason system of singing and Superintendent Mayne made a brief comparison between that and the Holt or Quincy method.

At the suggestion of Miss Carolyn Kimball a class of forty of the teachers was organized to pursue the study of singing by note through the coming winter. At the next meeting the study of drawing will be taken up.

Common Sense Weather Strip.

The common sense wood weather strip, now being introduced to the public, is one that far exceeds any yet invented. Testimonials by the hundreds could be furnished attesting to its merits, but I believe that a test under your own observation will prove far more convincing to you than a book full of testimonials from persons who are unknown to you. Give it a trial, if only a door or window, to convince you of its merits, so that your verdict may be recorded with that of others who have tested it. By using this strip you can make your house warm and comfortable; also make a great saving in fuel which will soon pay the cost of the strips. Parties wanting this strip can leave orders at Sherer's drug store, corner Franklin and Milwaukee streets, or at E. O. Smith's drug store near the post office.

WILLIAM FORD, Agent.

A Handsome Fixture.

One of the finest show cases ever put in a storeroom was received at F. C. Cook & Co's. this morning. It is a solid plate glass case with a genuine mahogany frame. The case will be very becoming to this firm's beautiful jewelry store. It will stand in the center of the room and will contain some very handsome goods. This firm was compelled to have the case as they had no way to show their surplus stock to an advantage. It will hold as much as three ordinary show cases, fourteen feet long. As you pass by step in and see it, or while you are waiting for the car you can amuse yourself looking at the many pretty things therein.

Like "Sweet Bells Jangled Out of Tune," Weak nerves respond harshly and inharmoniously to slight shocks, which would produce no effect upon strong ones. The shrill outcry of a child, the slamming of a door, the rattling of a vehicle over uneven pavement and other thrilling disturbances effect weak nerves—sensitive nerves, sorely. Nervousness is largely attributable to dyspepsia and non-assimilation of the food, a very usual concomitant of sleeplessness, and a very common cause of nervousness. Hostetter's Stomach soon beget nerve quietude and round repose. The great alterative causes the liver and bowels to move in co-operative harmony with the stomach, whereby the general tone of the system is raised to the true standard of health. In malarial complaints, rheumatism and kidney trouble, the Bitters produce excellent results.

A new phonograph cylinder made of hard soap has been invented in Germany, which is said to be cheaper than the writing paper required for holding the same number of words. At least 250,000 words can be put on a seventy-five cent cylinder.

The boot and shoe manufacturers in New England say that the demand for boots and shoes which retail at over $1.25 or $1.50 a pair has almost ceased to exist, and that practically all the manufacturers are running on cheap shoes in order to make a product that will sell.

SURROUNDED BY MYSTERY

A Great Mistake.

A recent discovery is that headache, dizziness, confusion of the mind, etc., are due to derangement of the nervous centers which supply the brain with nerve force; that indigestion, dyspepsia, neuralgia, wind in stomach, etc., arise from the derangement of the nerve centers supplying these organs with nerve fluid or force. This is likewise true of many diseases of the heart and lungs. The nerve system is like a telegraph system, as will be seen by the accompanying diagram.

The Little White Lines are the nerves which convey the nerve force from the nerve centers to every part of the body, just as the telegraph wires convey the electric current to every station, large or small. Ordinary physicians fail to regard this fact; instead of treating the nervous centers for the cause of the disorders arising therefrom they treat the part affected.

Franklin Miles, M. D., LL. B., the highly celebrated specialist and student of nervous diseases, and author of many noted treatises on the latter subject long since realized the truth of the first statement, and his Restorative Nerve is prepared on that principle. Its success in curing all diseases arising from derangement of the nervous system is wonderful, as the thousands of unsolicited testimonials in possession of the company manufacturing the remedy amply prove.

Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve is a reliable remedy for all nervous diseases, such as headache, nervous debility, prostration, sleeplessness, dizziness, hysteria, sexual debility, St. Vitus dance, epilepsy, etc. It is sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee, or sent direct by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, six bottles for $5, express prepaid. Restorative Nerve positively contains no opiates or dangerous drugs.

UPHAM TO BE HERE EARLY NEXT MONTH

BIG REPUBLICAN RALLY IN JANESVILLE NOV. 3.

Local Real Estate Values Double in Six Months—The Cunningham Assignment—Jackson Case to Quit the Horse Business—Brief Bits of Bower City News.

MAJOR W. H. UPHAM, the republican candidate for governor and Hon. The P. Keator of Illinois, will address the republicans of Janesville and vicinity at the opera house on Saturday evening, November 3. Every one is invited to attend this meeting.

A SHARP rise in real estate values is exemplified in a transfer of property on North Main street. The old Lawrence Carriage company shop at 56 North Main street was bought last April by Timothy E. Ludden from Anton Behrendt, the purchase price being $2,200. Now Mr. Ludden transfers the same property to John Leno of Porter, for $4,500, more than double the price six months ago. Mr. Leno will move to the city, occupying a portion of the building as a residence and the other part as a feed store.

BECAUSE of the low prices that A. F. Hall & Co., the reliable jewellers, put upon watches and everything they sell farmers come long distances to do their trading with them. And because of these same low prices farmers will gladly lose whatever time is necessary to do their trading in the day time and have the satisfaction of getting home in time to do their chores before dark.

OUR seven button golden wonder is the name we have christened our newest production. It is of Janesville parentage and its pedigree is one continued round of high standing. It is a wonder to wear and the style and fit is not equalled by any three dollar line in the city. We will make the same old price $2.48 and hope nobody will have the gall to copy and try to imitate these goods. Brown Bros. & Lincoln.

HENRY BLUNK, the local agent of the Joseph Schlitz Brewing Co., denies the statement that the brewing company was endeavoring to take unfair advantage of W. M. Cunningham. He says that favors had been extended from time to time, until the company was compelled to protect itself, or suffer loss.

EVANSVILLE people may well be pleased at the appearance of the new weekly that Andrews & Antes have started. The Badger is newsworthy, printed and business like. The editor, Miss Marilla Andrews, is lately from Washington, where she held an editorial position on the National Tribune.

SICKNESS has compelled ex-Senator Spooner to cancel all his political appointments for the campaign. He was sick when the campaign opened, and the few speeches he has made have tended to reduce his physical condition to such an extent that he has been obliged to quit speaking.

TEN dollar suit sale at Ziegler's. It is said that Jackson I. Case, of Racine, has decided to go out of the horse business entirely. Some time during the coming winter he will dispose of his entire string of horses, except the fast gelding, Jay Eye See.

H. J. WARNER, secretary of the United Trades assembly of the city, is figuring on leaving Mosher's shop and starting a barber shop in the Milwaukee street half of Bort, Bailey & Co's old store.

THE name of Silas Hayner was accidentally omitted from the list of subscribers to the Y. M. C. A. fund published last evening. Mr. Hayner was one of the first to subscribe one hundred dollars.

BORT, Bailey & Co's new store is nearing completion. It will be one of the handsomest in the state. The firm is closing out many lines to avoid moving. Sacrifice is the motto.

APPOINTMENTS can be made again with Rev. G. Kaempfe for class or private lessons in languages, especially German, also in music.

GENUINE quarter sawed oak, polished top, beaded edge tables at Kimball's for $2.30 each, cost $2.20 at the factory. See show window.

SYLVESTER MORGAN left this morning for Milan, Ohio, to look after his landed interests in that place. Mr. Morgan owns a 360 acre farm at Milov.

HERMAN BUCHHOLZ has returned from Philadelphia, where he attended the annual meeting of the National Builders' association.

A SAMPLE of those center tables we are selling for $2.30 each, is in our show window. Examine it. Frank D. Kimball.

ALL we ask of you is to look through our crockery and china ware. If we can't please you in style and price, we will not say a word. The Hub.

A. A. ROBINSON, president of the Mexican Central railway, has received the $500 black team he bought from Nelson Brothers.

GEORGE SCHALLER, employed in Inman & Ballard's planing mill was seriously injured this afternoon, by being struck in the groin by a timber he was sawing.

MARY ANN BURNS, the faithful colored woman who has lived with Mrs. J. H. Kinney for the twenty-seven years, accompanies the family to Chicago.

Mrs. ADDIE M. BRAND's friends smile at the report of her contemplated marriage to a New York man, and say the story is premature.

Mrs. MARGARET McLAY and niece, Miss Anna Wallace left today for Santiago, Cal., where they will spend the winter, returning home next spring.

THAT two dollar gets fine shoe sold by Brown Bros. & Lincoln looks well enough to sell for $3.00 and the wear is a genuine surprise.

A SPECIAL meeting of the Bower City band will be held this evening, and a full attendance is wanted.

VOTERS who have not registered, must remember that they have only one more chance—a week from to-day.

OUR regular price for stone china, handled and unhandled cups and saucers per set, is 42 and 36 cents at Wheelock's.

MRS. MUDGE DANCED AWAY WITH A MAN

WINSOME WOMAN PROVES TO BE FICKLE.

She Astonished Janesville With Her High Kicking, Agility and Fine Voice While She Was Staying Here, and Now She Has Eloped With a Frolicsome Photographer.

Gay, winsome and agile Mrs. Victor D. L. Mudge, the petite wife of the Chicago lawyer who astonished all Janesville by the height of her kicking and the grace of her dancing at the Hotel Myers last winter, has "done gone done it."

She could sing like a bird as well as dance and one of her favorite songs was the minstrel melody.

He ran away with another man's wife; Other man swore he'd have his life; But Miss Jones came back, etc.

"What has she done?"

Why, she has acted out the song; she has eloped with C. F. Hartley, the rich Chicago photographer. Janesville people will remember Mr. Mudge as the dapper little attorney who defended W. H. Train the "Songs of All Nations" fraud. Mrs. Mudge was here with him and afterward came back to Janesville and spent the summer at the Myers, where she frequently entertained local audiences with her dancing and singing.

Since her return to Chicago she and Hartley, who was her husband's friend, have found they were "affinities."

Went West and Stayed.

They sought opportunities, so Mr. Mudge says he has since learned, for each other's society. They ate together at restaurants, they took luncheon at down town eating houses and once the entire Mudge family was ejected for non payment of rent and Mrs. Mudge took refuge with Mrs. Hartley. Mudge says he went honestly about his law business and saw nothing going wrong.

Some four months ago Mrs. Mudge decided to go west to visit her family in Salt Lake City. Mr. Mudge tells the remainder of the story as follows:

"My wife wrote to me three or four times a week for the first three months she was gone; then she suddenly dropped off in her correspondence and I accidentally discovered that letters were being misdirected so far as addresses were concerned. Thus put on the scent I soon found that Mrs. Mudge and Mr. Hartley had been enamored since our first acquaintance.

"In the meantime we had lived at the Leland and at the Wellington and in each house had been most intimate. Hartley was my bosom friend. That he has played me false I cannot doubt, but he is the last man in the world I would have suspected of such perfidy."

PROGRAMME FOR THIS EVENING.

Troops Massing on Mexican Frontier

OAXACA, Mexico, Oct. 23.—Official advices have been received here that the government of Guatemala is dispatching large forces of troops to the frontier along the Mexican border. The Mexican government is prepared for any hostilities that may take place on the part of Guatemala toward Mexico.

Peary's Ship Falcon May Be Lost.

ST. JOHN, N. F., Oct. 23.—It is feared the stanch sealing steamship Falcon, which carried the Peary expedition to and from Greenland, is lost. It is many days overdue. There were sixteen persons on board.

Big Fire in a Swamp.

AKRON, Ohio, Oct. 23.—A terrific fire is raging over the Copley swamp west of this city, and unless rain falls in a few days the loss will be enormous. The fire has spread over almost 1,000 acres and the loss at present amounts to $60,000.

Three Killed by Lightning.

CALDWELL, Ohio, Oct. 23.—The residence of Sylvester Yeagle, near Carlisle, in this county, was struck by lightning last evening and burned.

WHY WERE DEMOCRATS ABSENT?

Mayor Thoroughgood Inquires About Last Night's Remarkable Coincidence.

When Mayor Thoroughgood called the special council meeting for tonight he was asked what reason there was for the absence of the aldermen last night.

"When the council was called to order," he replied, "I noticed that with the exception of Alderman Sutherland, who is out of the city, all the absentees were on the democratic side of the house. I am not able to say, nor do I say, this was a concerted move on their part, but I am able to say it looks very much like it."

"I was told by a very reliable party that it was known early in the evening that the quorum would be broken. I do not rely much on this hearsay, yet it savors of truth in this case. The duties of the city government are very plain and I believe it is nonsense to prolong anything that must inevitably come before the council. I know of no charge that is to be brought against any one, and I know of no reason why we should not have had a full attendance last night."

TWO JANESVILLE MEN IN A WRECK

Engineer Lee and Conductor Horn Have a Bad Smash Up.

The failure of the brakes to work piled up the Northwestern train in charge of Engineer Lees and Conductor Horn both of this city between Fond du Lac and Milwaukee and it was only by a mere chance that they escaped. Conductor Horn and Engineer Lees were running a special freight and at Kewaskum a regular freight was engaged in switching. The track runs down into the town at a sharp incline and with a sharp curve. As they came around the bend they saw the engine of the other train and put on the air brakes. They refused to work, and the engine, helped along by the heavy load behind it plunged into the engine of the other train with terrific force. The water tank was forced through the cab of Conductor Lee's engine and several cars were piled up but luckily no one was injured, but the property loss to the company will be large.

WILL ROSSOW'S LEG BROKEN

Riverside Laundry Delivery Clerk Painfully Hurt This Morning.

Will Rossow, who drives the Riverside Laundry delivery wagon, is lying at his Second ward home suffering with a broken leg which injury he received in a runaway. Mr. Rossow left the horse standing near J. S. Schottle's home while he went in to a box. As he went to step into the wagon after delivering the package, the horse started, throwing Mr. Rossow in such a way as to fracture one of the small bones of his leg. Dr. Menzies dressed the injury, and the sufferer is resting easy. The thighs and the top of the wagon were more or less damaged.

"MURDER!" CRIED GRIFFIN.

He Got a Punch in an Argument, and Called for Help.

"Murder! Murder! Murder!" cried "Monk" Griffin with the full power of his lungs last night. People in the vicinity, and it was at the Five Points, shuddered as they thought of blood. Officer Kruse was one of the hearers, and he hastened to the scene, but all he saw was two men making tracks in the darkness that was rent by Griffin's calls for help. They had become mixed up in an argument of some kind, and Griffin had been punched. No blood was shed and no arrests made.

SHE WANTS TO FIND HER HUSBAND

Mrs. Leander Porter Seeks News of a Missing Spouse and Children.

Mrs. Leander Porter of Beloit, desires information of her husband and two children, a boy of 15 and a girl of 12, who started from Rochester, Minn., eleven weeks ago. They were engaged in the rag buying business and had a covered lumber wagon and a covered light spring wagon. She knows of no reason why they would not write to her.

COLLAR BONE TAKEN FROM BAUMAM

Difficult Operation Performed on a Janesville Drug Clerk in Chicago.

John Bauman, formerly in the employ of Stearns & Baker, is now confined in the Emergency hospital in Chicago, where a very successful operation was performed on him a few days ago, it being the removal of a portion of his collar bone. He is doing well, and it is said he will soon be all right.

HARRY BROWN HIT BY A RUNAWAY

Team Dashed Into His Rig in the Dark Inflicting Serious Damages.

Harry Brown picked himself up on Cherry street last evening somewhat bruised, and surveyed his lumber wagon, which was in a badly wrecked condition. It was dark, and a runaway team had collided with him.

Mr. Brown was able to come up town this afternoon, but his wagon is in the shop undergoing repairs, having a broken pole, a crushed wheel and a number of other breaks.

CHAPIN FARM NOT A SEWERAGE TRAP

BUY FARMS IN ROCK AND SETTLE HERE

SOLID JEFFERSON COUNTY MEN ARE MOVING.

William Boss Leads a Cavalcade of Eleven Teams Loaded With Household Goods Through the City Today—Others Will Follow Him to Turtle Creek.

William Boss, of Johnson Creek, Jefferson county, has sold his farm and bought another, five miles from Beloit, on Turtle Creek. To-day Mr. Boss passed through the city on his way to his new farm, having eleven teams loaded with household goods and farm implements. He stopped for dinner at the Union house.

"These are not all my personal effects," said Mr. Boss as he sat down to the dinner table with his help. "We have four big loads to follow, besides our stock."

"That fellow worked for me at one time," said Landlord Behrendt, "he has had better luck running a farm than I have had running a hotel, for he has got a big farm, and a whole street full of teams."

It is said that four other Johnson Creek farmers have taken a fancy to Rock county, and will soon exchange their farms, becoming neighbors of Mr. Boss on Turtle creek.

AT REST IN THE FINAL SLEEP.

Mrs. A. A. Dame.

Mrs. A. A. Dame, aged seventy-six years, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. A. Beth, of the town of Harmony, Saturday, October 20, at 11 o'clock. Mrs. Dame was one of the early settlers of the county, coming here in 1845. She had been in poor health for some time. A woman of many rare traits of character, she enjoyed the love and confidence of a large circle of friends.

The funeral was held at the home at 10:30 this morning, and the remains were buried at the Mount Zion cemetery, by the side of her husband, who died some seventeen years ago.

John Cunningham.

John Cunningham, of Johnstown Center, died at the home of his uncle, James Berrigan last night at 11 o'clock, aged thirty six years. He was unmarried, but leaves a father, Richard Cunningham, who resides in New York city, and three sisters, one residing in Johnstown and two in New York. The funeral will be held on Thursday morning at St. Mary's church at 10 o'clock, the funeral party leaving Johnstown Center at 8 o'clock.

TALMAGE PREACHES OF OCTOBER THOUGHTS.

"The Stork in the Heavens Knoweth Her Appointed Time, but My People Know Not the Judgment of the Lord." Jer. 8:VIL

BROOKLYN, Oct. 21.—Rev. Dr. Talmage, who has left India and is now on his homeward journey, has selected as the subject for his sermon to-day through the press, "October Thoughts," his text being Jeremiah 8:VIL.

When God would set fast a beautiful thought, he plants it in a tree. When he would put it afloat he fashions it into a fish. When he would have it glide the air, he moulds it into a bird. My text speaks of four birds of beautiful instinct—the stork, of such strong affection that it is allowed familiarly to come in Holland and Germany, and build its nest over the doorway; the sweet-dispositioned turtle dove, mingling in color white and black, and brown, and ashen, and chestnut; the crane, with voice like the clang of a trumpet; the swallows, swift as a dart shot out of the bow of heaven, falling, mounting, skimming, sailing—four birds started by the prophet twenty-five centuries ago, yet flying on through the ages, with rousing truth under glossy wing and in the clutch of stout claw. I suppose it may have been this very season of the year—autumn—and the prophet out-of-doors, thinking of the impenitence of the people of his day, hears a great cry overhead.

Now, you know it is no easy thing for one with ordinary delicacy of eyesight to look into the deep blue of noontime heaven; but the prophet looks up, and there are flocks of storks, and turtle doves, and cranes, and swallows drawn out in long lines for flight southward. As is their habit, the cranes had arranged themselves in two lines making an angle, a wedge splitting the air with wild velocity, the old crane, with commanding call bidding them onward; while the towns, and the cities, and the continents slid under them. The prophet, almost blinded from looking into the dazzling heavens, stoops down and begins to think how much superior the birds are in sagacity about their safety than men about theirs; and he puts his hand upon the pen, and begins to write: "The stork in the heaven knoweth her appointed times; and the turtle and the crane and the swallow observe the time of their coming; but my people know not the judgment of the Lord."

If you were in the field to-day, in the clump of trees at the corner of the field, you would see a convention of birds, noisy as the American congress the last night before adjournment, or as the English parliament when some unfortunate member proposes more economy in the queen's household—a convention of birds all talking at once, moving and passing resolutions on the subject of migration; some proposing to go to-morrow, some moving that they go to-day, but all unanimous in the fact that they must go soon, for they have marching orders from the Lord written on the first white sheet of frost, and in the pictorial of the changing leaves. There is not a belted kingfisher, a chaffinch, or a fire crested wren, or a plover, or a red legged partridge but expects to spend the winter at the south, for the apartments have already been ordered for them in South America or in Africa; and after thousands of miles of flight, they will stop in the very tree where they spent last January. Farewell, bright plumage! Until spring weather, away! Fly on, great band of heavenly musicians! Strew the continents with music, and whether from Ceylon isle, or Carolinian swamps, or Brazilian groves men see your wings or hear your voice, may they yet bethink themselves of the solemn words of the text: "The stork in the heaven knoweth her appointed times; and the turtle and the crane and the swallow observe the time of their coming; but my people know not the judgment of the Lord."

I propose so far as God may help me, in this sermon, carrying out the idea of the text, to show that the birds of the air have more sagacity than men. And I begin by particularizing and saying that they mingle music with their work. The most serious undertaking of a bird's life is this annual flight southward. Naturalists tell us that they arrive thin and weary, and plumage ruffled, and yet they go singing all the way; the ground, the lower line of the music, the sky, the upper line of the music, themselves the notes scattered up and down between. I suppose their song gives elasticity to their wing and helps on with the journey, dwindling a thousand miles into four hundred. Would God that we were as wise as they in mingling Christian song with our every day work! I believe there is such a thing as taking the pitch of Christian devotion in the morning and keeping it all the day. I think we might take some of the dulcetest, heaviest, most disagreeable work of our life, and set it to the tune of "Antioch" or "Mount Pisgah."

It is a good sign when you hear a workman whistle. It is a better sign when you hear him hum a roundelay. It is a still better sign when you hear him sing the words of Isaac Watts or Charles Wesley. A violin chorded and strung, if something accidentally strike it, makes music, and I suppose there is such a thing as having our hearts so attuned by divine grace, that even the rough collisions of life will make a heavenly vibration. I do not believe that the power of Christian song has yet been fully tried. I believe that if you could roll the "Old Hundred" doxology through the street, it would put an end to any panic! I believe that the discords, and the sorrows, and the sins of the world are to be swept out by heaven-born hallelujahs. Some one asked Haydn, the celebrated musician, why he always composed such cheerful music. "Why," he said, "I can't do otherwise. When I think of God my soul is so full of joy that the notes leap and dance from my pen." I wish we might all exult melodiously before the Lord. With God for our Father, and Christ for our Savior, and heaven for our home, and angels for future companions, and eternity for a lifetime, we should strike all the notes of joy. Going through the wilderness of this world let us remember that we are on the way to the summery clime of heaven, and from the migratory populations flying through this autumnal air learn always to keep singing.

Children of the heavenly King, As ye journey, sweetly sing, Sing your Savior's worthy praise, Glorious in his works and ways.

Ye are traveling home to God, In the way your fathers trod; They are happy now, and we, Soon their happiness shall see.

The church of God never will be a triumphant church until it becomes a singing church.

I go further, and remark that the birds of the air are wiser than we, in the fact that in their migration they fly very high. During the summer, when they are in the fields, they often come within reach of the gun, but when they start for their annual flight southward, they take their places mid-heaven and go straight as a mark. The longest rifle that was ever brought to shoulder can not reach them. Would to God that we were as wise as the stork and crane in our flight heavenward. We fly so low that we are within easy range of the world, the flesh and the devil. We are brought down by temptations that ought not to come within a mile of reaching us. Oh, for some of the faith of George Miller of England, and Alfred Cookman once of the church militant, now of the church triumphant! So poor is the type of piety in the church of God now, that men actually caricature the idea that there is any such thing as a higher life. Moles never did believe in eagles. But, my brethren, because we have not reached these heights ourselves, shall we deride the fact that there are any such heights? A man was once talking to Brunel, the famous engineer, about the length of the railroad from London to Bristol. The engineer said, "It is not very great. We shall have, after a while, a steamer running from England to New York." They laughed him to scorn; but we have gone so far now that we have ceased to laugh at anything as impossible for the Lord? I do not believe that God exhausted all his grace in Paul, and Latimer and Edward Payson. I believe there are higher points of Christian attainment to be reached in the future ages of the Christian world. You tell me that Paul went up to the top of the Alps of Christian attainment. Then I tell you that the stork and crane have found above the Alps plenty of room for free flying. We go out and we conquer our temptations by the grace of God, and lie down. On the morrow, those temptations rally themselves and attack us, and by the grace of God we defeat them again, but, saying all the time in the old encampment, we have the same old battles to fight over. Why not whip out our temptations, and then forward march, making one raid through the enemy's country, stopping not until we break ranks after the last victory. Do, my brethren, let us have some novelty of combat, at any rate, by changing, by going on, by making advancement, trading off our stale prayers about sins we ought to have quit long ago, going on toward a higher state of Christian character, and routing out sins that we have never thought of yet. The fact is, if the church of God—if we as individuals, made rapid advancement in the Christian life, these stereotyped prayers we have been making for ten or fifteen years would be as inappropriate to us as the shoes, and the hats, and the coats we wore ten or fifteen years ago. Oh for a higher flight in the Christian life, the stork and the crane in their migration teaching us the lesson!

Dear Lord, and shall we ever live, At this poor dying rate— Our love so faint, so cold to thee, And thine to us so great?

Again, I remark that the birds of the air are wiser than we, because they know when to start. If you should go out now and shout, "Stop, storks and cranes, don't be in a hurry!" they would say, "No, we can not stop; last night we heard the roaring in the woods bidding us away, and the shrill flute of the north wind has sounded the retreat. We must go. We must go." So they gather themselves into companies, and turning not aside for storm or mountain top, or shock of musketry, over land and sea, straight as an arrow to the mark they go. And if you come out this morning with a sack of corn and throw it in the fields and try to get them to stop, they are now so far up they would hardly see it. They are on their way south. You could not stop them. Oh, that we were as wise about the best time to start for God and heaven! We say, "Wait until it is a little later in the season of mercy. Wait until some of these green leaves of hope are all dried up and have been scattered. Wait until next year." After awhile we start, and it is too late, and we perish in the way when God's wrath is kindled but a little. There are, you know, exceptional cases, where birds have started too late, and in the morning you have found them dead on the snow. And there are those who have perished half way between the world and Christ. They waited until the last sickness, when the mind was gone, or they were on the express train going at forty miles an hour, and they came to the bridge and the "draw was up" and they went down. How long to repent and pray? Two seconds! To do the work of a lifetime and to prepare for the vast eternity in two seconds!

Painting on Corn.

It is said that the smallest piece of painting in the world has recently been executed by a Flemish artist. It is painted on the smooth side of a grain of common white corn, and pictures a mill and a miller mounting a stairs with a sack of grain on his back. The mill is represented as standing on a terrace, and near it are a horse and cart, while a group of several peasants is shown in the road near by. The picture is beautifully distinct, every object being finished with microscopic fidelity.

Merely a Matter of Taste.

They were talking about the wonders of this wonderful land.

"I wish you could see our town of Pokerville, professor," said the younger of the two men. "It is a most interesting town—only twenty years old and with 50,000 inhabitants."

"Ah—yes—very interesting, no doubt," replied the professor. "But, strange as it may seem, I should prefer myself a town 50,000 years old and with only twenty inhabitants."—Boston Budget.

AN ANNUAL CROP OF MEAT.

A Delmonico Delicacy Crushed Under Foot by Its Owners.

Upon a certain spot on the lawn of one of my neighbors, year after year, without fail, there springs up a most singular crop. For the first two years of its appearance it was looked upon with curious awe by the proprietors of the premises, and usually ignominiously spurned with the foot by the indiscriminating and destructive small boy. One day I observed about five pounds of this Delmonico delicacy thus scattered piecemeal about the grass, and my protest has since spared the annual crop for my sole benefit, writes William Hamilton Gibson in Harper's Magazine. It usually makes its appearance in late September, and continues in intermittent crops until November. A casual observer of this cluster of edible toad-stools might imagine that he beheld a convention of goose eggs standing on end in the grass, their summits more or less spotted with brown. If one of them is examined, it is seen to be a curious short-stemmed mushroom which never expands, perhaps five inches in height, and whose surface is curiously decorated with shaggy patches. In its early stages it is white and singularly egglike, but later becomes brownish, and its shaggy points almost black. The concealed gills are crowded and of equal length, at first creamy white, but gradually changing through a whole gamut of pinks, sepals and browns until they become jet-black, at which time the whole substance of the cap melts or deliquesces into an unsightly inky paste, which besmears the grass and ultimately leaves only the bare white stalk standing in its midst. This is the "shaggy-man" mushroom, Coprinus comatus. It is a savory morsel, and it cannot be confounded with any other fungus. It should be gathered in the white or pink stage, and may be prepared for the table in various ways, either broiled or fried, as described for previous species, or stewed with milk.

NATURE'S CRUELTY.

The Ichneumon Fly Makes the Fly's Natural Enemy Serve Its Purpose.

The Ichneumon fly of Ceylon is the natural enemy of the spider. This insect is green in color, and in form resembles a wasp, with a marvelously thin waist. It makes its nest of well worked clay, and then goes on a hunting expedition. Its victims are invariably spiders of various kinds, but all are subject to the same mode of treatment. A scientific sting injects some poison, which effectually paralyzes the luckless spider, which is then carried off to the nest, and there fastened with a dab of moist clay. Another and another victim is brought to this chamber of horrors. Then the president mother ichneumon fly proceeds to deposit her eggs, one in the body of each spider, which can just move its legs, in a vague, aimless manner but can offer no resistance. This done, the fly returns to her work as a mason. She prepares more clay, and builds up the entrance to this ghastly cell. Then she commences a new cell, which she furnishes in like manner, and then closes; then she adds yet another cell, and so proceeds until her store of eggs are all provided for, and her task in life being accomplished she dies, leaving her evil brood to hatch at leisure. In due time these horrid little maggots come to life, and find themselves cradled in a larder of fresh meat. Each poor spider is still alive, and his juices afford nutriment for the ichneumon grub till it is ready to pass into the chrysalis stage, thence to emerge as a winged fly, fully prepared to carry out the traditions of its ancestors with regard to spiders.

a little now and then, with a gentle, cleansing laxative, thereby removing offending matter from the stomach and bowels, and toning up and invigorating the liver and quickening its tardy action, and you thereby remove the cause of a multitude of distressing diseases, such as headaches, indigestion, biliousness, skin diseases, boils, carbuncles, piles, fistulas and maladies too numerous to mention.

If people would pay more attention to properly regulating the action of their bowels, they would have less frequent occasion to call for their doctor's services to subdue attacks of dangerous diseases.

That, of all known agents to accomplish this purpose, Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are unequalled, is proven by the fact that once used, they are always in favor. Their secondary effect is to keep the bowels open and regular, not to further constipate, as is the case with other pills. Hence, their great popularity with sufferers from habitual constipation, piles and indigestion.

HAD A STORY.

But It Was Like One of Those Continued Tales.

A young man who had sat in the shadow of one of the big pillars unobserved rose with a sigh, and, signaling to a big dog at his feet took a step and then came back.

"I have enjoyed the stories," said he, "but I haven't told any myself yet. To tell the truth, I haven't any to tell just now. Maybe I'll have one to-morrow night. I expect to—though I may not care to laugh at it."

"Tell us! Tell us!" came a chorus of curious voices.

"It's this way! Yesterday Towser"—pointing to the collie—"wasn't very well, and I went out and bought him some fresh dog biscuit—you know, those big brown cakes—"

"Go on! Go on! We are interested."

"Well, I left some of them on the dining-room table, and this morning father happened into the breakfast room early and ate one with his first cup of coffee. Father is a crank on brown graham bread, and Mary Ann didn't dare to stop him when she saw he had once begun."

"Well!"

"Oh, nothing more! Only I heard him inquiring for some more of those 'nice brown crackers' for his supper to-night, and I'm really afraid to go home. He must have found out by this time! I'll tell you the rest to-morrow night. Mine is to be a continued story."

Royal Bicyclists.

The royalties of Europe patronize the bicycle with as much energy as the boys of America. The king of the Belgians exercises upon one daily, little Queen Wilhelmina rides one when she is at her castle of Het Loo, and the czarowitz, Princess George and Nicolas of Greece, are all cyclists. The bicycle of the khedive of Egypt is a gorgeous machine, almost entirely covered with silver plating.

Out-Door Work Is the Healthier.

The results of examinations of European statistics by M. Lagneau go to show that as among occupations consumption is most prevalent among persons whose work is sedentary; while persons living in the open air enjoy an almost complete immunity. From another point of view consumption appears to increase in towns rapidly with the density of population.

Moral Suasion.

Old Gentleman—Do you mean to say that your teachers never thrashed you?

Little Boy—Never. We have moral suasion at our school.

"What's that?"

"Oh, we get kep' in, and stood up in corners and locked out and locked in, and made to write one word a thousand times and scowled at, and jawed at, and that's all."

CURES INSOMNIA.

A Man Hired to Squirt Water on His Employer's Window.

Not far from Washington square, in Chicago, a man has been earning $1 a night in a novel way, and at the same time is breaking the ordinances which limit the use of water through garden hose. He begins work when the master of the house goes to bed, and remains on duty until he is convinced in his own mind that his employer has gone sound to sleep. The man is paid $1 a night to stand under his employer's window and play the stream from the hose on the window panes. His employer's friends say that he is such a great traveler that he cannot sleep unless he hears the swish of water under the port hole of his cabin, so that he is obliged to get up a substitute when on land, and that the nearest approach to this soothing swish is a slender stream of water moving over the window panes.

The fact is, the man had discovered a cure for insomnia which is working well in his case. The idea was suggested to him one afternoon when he was stretched on the sand at the edge of the lake. The monotonous breaking of the waves lulled him to slumber, and that afternoon he enjoyed his first good nap for a week. Soon after he hired a man to squirt water on his bedroom window, and he says that the muffled sound kept up for an hour sends him to sleep every night.

Doubt About Insurance.

Insuring in a questionable company is like depositing in a shaky bank. Both concerns may pull through, but why take the risk? Read this list:
